

Where are they Now? Updates

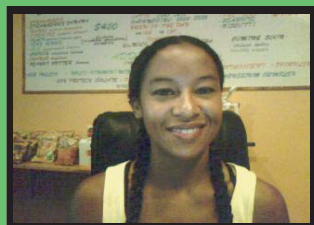

Since Jodie was featured in the Fall 2006 edition of the Alumni Newsletter, she has been working diligently on her career as a singer/songwriter. Jodie's music was used on the popular TV show "So You Think You Can Dance". She has also been working with dance companies around the United States who use her music for their performances. Jodie is very excited about working on her fourth album.

Jodie Manross

Want to hear some of Jodie's amazing tunes?

Visit <http://jodiemanross.com> or <http://myspace.com/jodiemanross>

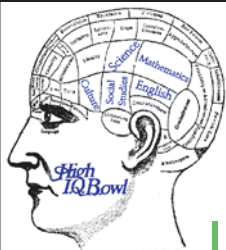

Gael McAllister

Gael was featured in the Fall 2008 Alumni Newsletter. Her shop, The Juice Gallery is doing very well. The local community and GYC volunteers have embraced the tasty, healthy food options offered and the prices are not bad either. Many GYC volunteers love the smoothies, especially the strawberry and banana one, and the muffins from the Spring Garden Bakery.

As the warm spring and hot summer weather approach don't forget to visit Gael at The Juice Gallery located at 718 West Market Street. It will be well worth your while!

What have you been up to since leaving GYC? Send an email to jasia.stevenson@greensboro-nc.gov so we can feature you in "Where are they Now?"

Fun Fact:

Since the High IQ Bowl began in 1966, Grimsley High School has won the most tournaments.

Featured Project

The High I.Q. Bowl began in 1966 to bring together academic teams from across North Carolina to compete in a tournament. For the past several years Crescent Rotary of Greensboro has sponsored the winning team's scholarship of $2,000 and the Greensboro Parks and Recreation Department sponsoring the runner up scholarship of $1,000. This year's semi-final rounds were very competitive leaving Greensboro Day School and Grimsley High School to battle it out in the final round. Greensboro Day School came out victorious by a small margin.

Unfortunately, due to the decrease in the participation of teams, the 2009 High I.Q. Bowl was the final tournament. Local high schools, such as the Early College at Guilford and Greensboro Day School, are looking to implement a similar tournament.

It makes it a bit easier to end High I.Q. Bowl knowing that the competitive, academic spirit will continue.

For the 2009-2010, a second year of Youth Leadership Greensboro (YLG) will take the place of High IQ Bowl. Students in this program participated in YLG and will have adult mentors to assist with the planning of day sessions. Those in YLG 2 will also interact more with GYC by attending the Leadership Trainings and volunteering at GYC projects. The money donated by Crescent Rotary of Greensboro Will be donated to YLG and YLG 2 to take care of program costs.

Greensboro Day School

Grimsley

Sponsorship Information

You may donate to GYC in general or to a specific project. For more information email jasia.stevenson@greensboro-nc.gov.

Ready to Donate?

Make checks payable to:
Greensboro Youth Council and mail to:
Greensboro Youth Council,
Attn: Jasia Stevenson,
PO Box 3136,
Greensboro, NC 27402

GYC Board 2009-2010

Chair, Kris Rawls, Dudley, 12
Internal Affairs, Hilary Chan, Early College at Guilford, 12
Recruiting, Joscelyne Mason, Dudley, 12
Public Relations, Marques Dotts, Grimsley, 12
Training, Devin Jones, Dudley, 12
Historian, Richard Sosa, Dudley, 12
Records, Johnathan Petty, Page, 12
Connections, Monique Florence, Grimsley, 12
Sponsorship, Sierra Lloyd, Dudley, 12
Santa's Workshop, Cyera Clegg, Smith, 11
Ghoulash!, Adrienne White, Dudley, 12